

For Immediate Release: Thursday, April 19, 2007
Contact: Brady Bourquin, Hostel Manager at (330) 467-8711

Stanford Hostel's 20th Pancake Breakfast

Peninsula, Ohio - The Northeast Ohio Council of Hostelling International (HI-NOC) is holding its 20th Annual Stanford Hostel Pancake Breakfast Fundraiser on Sunday, May 6, 2007. Pancakes will be served from 9 a.m. - 2 p.m. at the Stanford Hostel, located at 6093 Stanford Road in Peninsula. Everyone is invited to enjoy pancakes made from Ohio stone-ground flour, lean sausage, orange juice, fair trade coffee, and Northeast Ohio maple syrup. After breakfast explore the beautiful Cuyahoga Valley National Park trails, Ohio & Erie Canal Towpath Trail or ride the Cuyahoga Valley Scenic Railroad. Convenient parking for handicapped persons and seniors is provided. Cost is $10 for adults; $5 for children 12 and under. All proceeds benefit the hostel. For more information contact Brady Bourquin, Hostel Manager at (330) 467-8711.

Stanford Hostel, a restored 19th century farmhouse, is located at 6093 Stanford Road, Peninsula, Ohio, 44264, 1/2- mile from Boston Mills Road, just south of the Boston Mills Ski Area on Riverview Road. HI-NOC is a nonprofit organization that operates Stanford Hostel, a 35-bed facility. Stanford Hostel welcomes people of all ages year round. For more information, please visit www.stanfordhostel.org.

HI-NOC is a 501(c) 3 dedicated to Hostelling International's mission: "To help all, especially the young, gain a greater understanding of the world and its people through hostelling." HI-USA hostels welcome travelers of ALL ages. Outright monetary donations to HI-NOC are appreciated and fully tax deductible.

###